Good evening...

Um..... I'm very sorry to trouble the both of you..... but we received two submissions requesting information on the Outlaw known as KOIOS the other day..... I believe they came from these mailing addresses. Please correct me if I'm wrong about that? Sorry again..... :(

As far as I'm aware, we don't possess any records regarding that Outlaw..... I know, I'm disappointed about that too..... but have no fear! I believe there is a ray of light to be found at the end of this melancholic tunnel.....

As a proud Priest of the Unfortunate Sons and devout Outaku, I really want to help you out! Plus, not to sound selfish, but this has the makings of a great research project..... I can see it now..... Bishop Mippsi! Hehehe.....

As far as I can tell, KOIOS is a name of Khil'maran origin..... If the both of you would be willing to wait, I'll head to our organization's library when I have a chance these coming weeks and research what I can about this KOIOS. We must have some copies of Khil'maran records floating somewhere about the place.....

I hope this satisfies your curiosity, at least for the time being..... I promise to get those records to you as soon as possible, praying I can find them..... Knowing me, it's really a toss-up.....

Lastly, perhaps KOIOS is an Outlaw we know of already..... I would just need a name used by the Unfortunate Sons. For example.... what we call <<BIRDS OF PREY>> is referred to as HARPJA by the Khil'marans. I only know that one because of Cardinal Kleine though.....

Please let me know if you have any questions. It will be a pleasure working with you!

Hey Sade! Good to hear from you again!

It may be a long shot but the Outlaw we're looking for may be under the name BORIS THE SPIDER or something along those lines somewhere in the Unfortunate Sons database. If not we'll keep searching as well! I'm sure we can find it out there somewhere!

Oh! Hello, [REDACTED] didn't even recognize your mailing address. Please forgive me..... I can't even pay respect to fellow members of the Sons.....! :(No wonder they haven't promoted me.....

Just to make matters worse..... that's not an Outlaw name I recognize. And believe me on this one..... I read entries of our field guide every night before I go to sleep..... Hehehe.....

Sorry..... But at least you can trust me when I say, that isn't any Outlaw the Sons are aware of. Maybe you were thinking of something else?

Well then.....

Good evening Sade!

I've done some digging over the last week and I believe I've gotten closer to finding the name of this unknown Outlaw. Does the name LEGION ring a bell to you at all?

Hello, I hope you are doing well.

I hate to disappoint you, but..... I don't recognize that name at all..... maybe I should..... I'm so sorry..... I'm a horrible Outlaw Researcher..... :(

However..... I've been pouring through all sorts of Khil'maran texts relating to Outlaws during my time off..... I've learned so much, my head feels like it's about to burst.....!

And yet.... nothing to do with KOIOS..... :(

But I feel we're on the right track..... Call it a researcher's instinct.....! Either way, I'm not giving up the hunt. Even if I have to read every book available.....

I hope that bit of good news will allow you to forgive me..... I promise I won't leave you hanging.....!

Hello,

Guess what!I have some good news for you! I was finally able to find something on KOIOS!

Well..... kind of. The only known documents regarding it are written entirely in Khil'maran..... Go figure..... :[

But the text isn't too terribly long..... so I'm having a friend of mine translate it..... She's been studying Khil'maran since we're we kids! She even studied abroad there..... Had plenty of run-ins with Outlaws and all..... She even saw one of her colleagues get disembodied right in front of her.....! (.....Ugh! Some people get all the luck...)

Anyhow.... She says it shouldn't take more than a week for her to translate what we've found..... I will send the results to you as soon as I can!

Best wishes.....

[REDACTED] Hello!

As you probably already know..... it's always good news and bad news with me.....

My friend was able to translate the Khil'maran text I found, and compiled together any information that mentioned KOIOS..... but when I went to send the document..... the computer wouldn't let me!
It's all so frustrating..... but I don't blame the technology it's probably because of some curse hanging over me.....

(◡ ◡ ◡)

I read over the document several times, so I can at least give you the gist of what was inside..... turns out KOIOS was an Outlaw the Khil'marans had discovered long ago. (In their language, of course, they call them khyrios.....) Anyhow..... if the old text is to be believed, KOIOS was capable of utilizing human language, just like you and I.....! Furthermore, it seems the Outlaw had some capacity to control the thoughts of others, and even overload people's minds with mental imagery until the point of snapping.....!

(Such a thing..... it almost sounds kind of..... |·ω·) Well..... I would let it control my mind anytime..... It must be so exhilarating..... ♥ Hah.....)

But that makes me wonder..... that Outlaw you mentioned before..... Legion, was it.....? Could it and KOIOS be one and the same.....? I have never heard of a talking Outlaw before..... but I have heard that there are several throughout the Beside that the Sons don't want made public..... even to its own members..... I'd be considered too rank-and-file to know about such a thing..... (x__x)

But I'd definitely want to meet a talking Outlaw.....! I'd risk everything to find one..... I will look into this matter further..... (perhaps Cardinal Romulus knows something.....) But until then.... I hope you found this information helpful.....!

Best wishes.....

Hello once again.....! Sorry to bother you..... but I was..... thinking..... have you tried submitting an Outlaw request form with <<LEGION>> as the subject? I'm not sure anything would come of that..... but it might be worth a shot. I mean..... asking for KOIOS somehow put you into contact with me..... Maybe something similar would happen if you sent another form.....? Just a suggestion.....

I would do it myself, you see..... but that application is for civilian use only..... Sons aren't allowed to use it.....

(Actually..... we totally are..... I'm just scared to death of what might happen if I'm the one asking for the info.....)

Thanks for the recommendation Sade, I just put in a request, I hope that won't be an issue considering I'm an Acolyte, if that even counts as a member in any official capacity.

I'm not gonna lie I just assumed you were the only one working on the request forms so I didn't even think to file another one since I was in direct contact with you anyways. It's a bit silly now that I actually think about it.

Anyways thank you for the information!

That's good to hear..... I'm hoping everything works out..... I want info as much as you do, so I'm excited to see how things go..... o('u')o
I mean..... an Outlaw that can speak.....? Such things must be documented and researched further.....!

(And.....hahaha..... maybe it would even..... be willing to talk in..... private...? (^__^).....)

Your status as an Acolyte..... you might have already realized it..... but it's kind of the Sons equivalent to a participation sticker..... a little honorary title.....
Ah..... not that you might not be accepted into our ranks eventually..... (: o _ o :)

(Although..... I doubt anyone digging around for taboo information would ever be allowed to join in full capacity.....)

Uh..... g-good luck, [REDACTED] ٩(◡‿◡)۶
